“ To the family and friends of Carliss Norwood-Bostic, I'm Grateful and Thankful to have had Carliss as my friend. I will always have a place in my heart for my friend. From the TSU dorm room phones to cell phones to events, gatherings and outings we talked about how much God had been good to us our families and we both loved the Church we attended and yes my Sista in Christ. We were friends because we loved God and we Trusted one another like you Trust God. Friends like that you don't meet everyday. I will continue to think of the conversations and the times spent because it will not be forgotten. Sending my Prayers and Sincere Condolences.

“ Love you Mrs. Carliss! Going to miss your fun filled, life of the party, bubbly spirit. We had some good times! Definitely one of my all time favorite cooks. Going to miss your hot home cooked meals. Thank you for blessing me with my bestie Catana. Loved witnessing the love you two shared. Going to miss hearing you call my name. Weeping may endure for a night... but joy comes in the morning light. I know you are in Heaven rejoicing with the angels. We are going to miss you! My girl!!! ❤️❤️❤️

Yesterday, I discovered via the Taylor Funeral Home website that my lady friend has transitioned. I am shocked! But glad I got a chance to smile with her before Christmas and her death. She kept me laughing since our High School years. I am trusting she is resting well. To the family, she brought us joy!
