“ Carlos, you were always a dear friend and one of the best people I know. I think about you every day. It doesn't seem real that you are not with us anymore. You were the only person who would call me almost every day just to see what was up. So many people loved you and we are all going to miss you. I dont know what to say really. But I hope there is something beyond and we get to meet again. Rest well my friend.
