“ Dear Family,

I am deeply saddened to hear about the passing of Chaquana. I had the honor of working with her, and she was a kind, warm, and beautiful soul who will truly be missed. Please know that your family is in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. May God comfort your hearts, give you strength, and surround you with peace as you cherish the precious memories of Chaquana.

“ She was a great friend when my daughter was little she would pick her up from school and they would go pick up a different color fingernail polish everyday and polish their nails while listening to Charlie Wilson. She is surely going to be missed. Fly high my sweet friend! I will keep your kids and grandkids together..
