“ Brother Charles Wallace was a gentle soul. He always met me with a smile and a handshake. I truly will miss my brother. Like in the movie American Dream about the Jackson's. Michael Jackson told Jermaine Jackson," When I look over my right shoulder. You are not there." Well, I feel the same way from now on about my dear brother Charles Wallace. Rest in Paradise my brother. I will one day see you on the other side. 🙏🙏🙏

Our deepest condolences, sympathy, but most of all Love goes out to the entire family. We will always remember the good times at church (Macedonia) as growing up friends. We had so much fun worshipping together on Sunday mornings.

Met Mr. Charles Wallace onboard the USS Dwight D. Eisenhower!!! He was my first supervisor, while I cranked for the supply department. He was very firm but fair! A solid individual! Watching how he conducted himself helped shape how I would later mature! Throughout the years after I left the military- Mr. Wallace & I stayed in touch via social media! He made sure to send me encouraging words when I'd post something a bit personal! I truly appreciated that! The world will truly miss you Big Wallace!!! Love you Brother!!! Rest peacefully Shipmate 🙏😭💔
