“ *To Chasity's Family, with Deepest Sympathy
My heart aches with your loss.
To my dear friend—your absence leaves a silence that words cannot fill.
Your radiant smile could brighten the darkest
day,
Your spirit was one of a kind—graceful, inspiring, and touched by heaven.
You walked this earth like an angel, and now you rest among them.
Sleep peacefully, sweet Chasity. You will forever be missed and cherished.*

“ Chàsatie you really hurt us with this one! Our sister circle is forever broken. We never got to physically meet as we planned but you've left a lasting impression on my soul. Thee most genuine, beautiful, and caring person I've come across on a very long time. I'll never forget you sis! You fought hard and ultimately you won. I love you sweet lady. Rest in Heaven! 🕊️💜

Sharon Sanford - November 07, 2025 at 05:56 PM

“Chasatie and I have been friends our entire lives—44 years and counting. Our mothers worked together at DuPont and were friends long before we were born. Our families have remained connected for all those years. I can’t think of a phase or season of my life that Chas was not a part of. Oh, the memories—from childhood to our teenage years, to young adulthood, to motherhood. She was the definition of a TRUE friend: compassionate, dependable, loving, authentic, and loyal. Her smile was contagious. I always admired her tenacity and perseverance, which was ever present during her illness. That fight and grit showed all the more. I prayed for her complete healing on this side, but God had other plans and gave it to her on the other side. Chas fought the good fight! We are all better for having had her in our lives. My love, prayers, and condolences to Danielle, Myles, Ms. Rosemary, Chris, and the entire Lawrence and Williams families. We love you all.

“ So sorry that I am just hearing about the loss. But fly high Chasitie. God had a been plan. Chasitie was a great person and I would see her coming and we both would bust out laughing. I encouraged Chasitie to go back to school and get her nursing license and she did it, I was so proud of her. Rest well Chasitie and you will be missed dearly.

“ Chasatie you were truly a bright light in a dark world. Your strength was incredible and your friendship was a true blessing. I've known you for many years, and although we hadn't seen each other we reached out thru social media. My heart is sadden by your absence from this world but you fought a good fight and inspired many by sharing your journey. You received your final healing and no more pain or suffering and now resting in the arms of Jesus. Rest in Heaven my friend until we meet again. Praying for her children, Bridgette, Marcus, Mom and the entire family.
