“ We extend our deepest sympathy on the passing of Mrs. Cora; we are sorry for your loss. I remember the Johnson Family from my childhood in Griffin, Ga.
I had the elated pleasure of seeing Mrs. Cora, Mr. John, and Mrs. Mitt in 2012 when they came to extend their love and support when we lost Uncle Marvin's son, David. I recently had Mrs. Cora and Mrs. Mitt on my mind and wondered how they were. Blessings, comfort, love, and prayers to each of you from the Agnes Scott Family.

“ *Don't think of me
With downcast eyes
When I cross your mind,
Look to the skies.
It's there I'll be,
Where glory abounds.
Dusting off my robe
And fixing my crown.
You may shed tears.
As expected, they'll come.
But I'm with Him now,
My work well done.
Weeping endures for the night.
Joy in the new day.
I walk now in sunshine.
My pain's gone away.
So don't remember me,
With eyes to the ground.
I'm in my new home
Where glory abounds.*

Love you, Grandmama
