Growing up my sister's would put the blame on me knowing daddy wouldn't spank me. Most of the time I said YES for the LOVE I had for my sister's. Being the oldest you had a role to set for yourself and others. So I said to myself if I have this responsibility then am gonna get something out of it. My strategy was I didn't know nothing about street life so I would look,listen,and ask questions. But when it came to Books I had it down pack (Book Sense). My father would say to me in order to get what you want out of life you have to work hard for it. That saying won 3rd Place Father Of The Year Contest Chattanooga News Free Press. Mother knew I was a good child and I knew Mother Love Me BUT if my Daddy would ask me anything I would tell it all and tell on myself. But as I grew older I learn to control my tongue. I am not prefect but in the end what you do that's not pleasing to Our Lord & Savior Jesus Christ He Has The Last Say So. In Closing MAMA I LOVE YOU I Couldn't Have Ask For A Better MOM. REST IN PEACE TO THE ENTIRE HYTER FAMILY FROM YOUR OLDEST SISTER WITH LOVE MS. SANDRA HYTER TREMBLE

“ Sending prayers to the Hyter family, my mom Carolyn Faust worked with her at Alton Park Health Center. I'll never forget her, she did so many great things to help my mom with me and my sister, Stephanie. She showed us so much love, hugs and smiles and my mom spoke so highly of her even before her death. She is a Angel and I know she will be missed. Rest Easy
