“ Ms. Dorothy,

Thank you for being the genuine and caring person you were. It was all ways a pleasure working with you because you gave us all a sense of comfort when you were in charge because we knew everything was going to be in order. But, you were also like a mother figure to me and I'm sure others as well. You taught me nursing skills as well as life lessons. Job well done my friend! Rest In Peace with no more suffering. You will be missed!

“ Aunt Dot was one of my strong mothers. She was always kind and giving. She always wanted to makes sure I was good and she supported my interests. I will miss her Thanksgiving dinners. I appreciated her always giving me encouragement and her motivational spirit. She was very hard working and driven. She will be dearly missed.
