*To Wanda and Family,
My heart is simply broken, and the tears won't stop. I can still see his beautiful little face smiling and running through the house playing. I remember the Saturday mornings I would cook pancakes and Seymour (as we called him), June, and DJ would come over to eat breakfast with his Uncle Bernard. He was a kind and loving child who grew up to become a well-mannered,hardworking young man. My words are insufficient, but God's Grace is sufficient. Our heartfelt sympathy to you and your family.
Always in our hearts and prayers,
Carolyn Jenkins & Family*
