“ My deepest condolences to Andre Clark and family. My neighbor, "Jr." was my buddy across the street He was always there willing to lend a hand to me and my family whenever we needed him. When my elderly father, Bishop John Draper, Sr. was trying to replace our mailbox, "Jr." volunteered to help when he sat on his porch and saw the 82 yr old struggling to get the box up. He took it upon himself and went and purchased a new post when he determined that my father was going to put a new box on an old rotten post. After my father passed Jr. would always be there for me when I needed help with changing out my lawnmower blade. I will miss seeing my buddy and having our chats - and our own little greeting "Hey, hey, hey". Rest in peace my brother.
