

Glenda Faye Walls

July 11, 1951 - July 19, 2021

“Well Done, Good and Faithful Servant!” (Matthew 25:21). Glenda Faye “Faydie” Walls was called to her heavenly home on July 19, 2021. She was born on July 11, 1951, in Chattanooga, Tennessee to the late Jimmie and Geneva Walls. Glenda’s soul was anchored in the Lord throughout her life and one of her many favorite scriptures is Psalm 23. She is predeceased by her parents and devoted sisters, Emma Walls Price and Louise (Charles) Southall.

After graduating with honors in 1969 from Howard High School, Glenda earned her Bachelor’s Degree in Elementary Education. She furthered her education, earning a Master’s Degree of Ministry in Christian Counseling from Covington Theological Seminary. Walls, as she is affectionately called by her colleagues, retired from the Hamilton County School System after dedicating thirty years of service as an elementary school teacher to Chattanooga City and Hamilton County Schools. Her legacy in the classroom is one of excellence in teaching with kindness and compassion. Ms. Walls truly loved her students and was known for inspiring young minds and enriching the lives of generations of students that she taught at Orchard Knob, Rivermont, Clara Carpenter and Calvin Donaldson Elementary Schools.

Glenda accepted Christ at an early age and was a faithful member of First Baptist Church of Washington Hills where she continued her love for teaching as a Sunday School Teacher. All who knew and loved Glenda Faye will miss her quiet spirit and beautiful smile. Family and friends will dearly miss the love and fun times shared with Faydie, especially her laughter, jokes and delicious turnip greens.

Aunt Faydie as Glenda Faye is affectionately called by her nieces and nephews leaves a loving family who will cherish her memory, especially her brothers, Jimmie Walls III and John Wesley Walls, devoted nieces who she helped raise, Nicelle Price Gray, Kimberly (William) Spears and their children, Ataya NiCelle Spears, Price Kenai Gray and Evan W. Spears, nephew and nieces who she was raised with like siblings, Charles Southall, Jr., Linda S. Eubanks and Constance S. Williams, and a host of beloved nieces, nephews, relatives and special friends.

Thank You to the one and only Glenda Faye Walls for loving us unconditionally and being a Beautiful Godly example of Christian Faith and Service. Well Done Aunt Faydie! On Christ the Solid Rock we will forever stand, carrying your perpetual light of love in our hearts forever.

The Family will receive visitors on Thursday, July 29, 2021, from 11:00 a.m.-12:45 p.m. at Taylor Funeral Home, 3417 Wilcox Blvd. Chattanooga, Tennessee 37411. “ I MISS YOU TERRIBLY / VERY, VERY, MUCH / WILL ALWAYS MISS YOU, I FEEL LIKE A PART OF ME IS MISSING / I DON'T KNOW WHAT TO DO -- It is painstaking to write something like this to my very best dear / closest friend whom sisterly friendship I have cherished / adored for an eternity, our forever friendship, weekly / daily talks about any / everything as if we were sitting in the same exact room, as well as our crazy talks about any and everything along with life's challenges. I always look forward to our talks whether be by cell, landline or anytime of the day or weekend. It is so very hard for me to fathom the fact that I will be unable to talk to you every day / to let you go / I know I should not be so selfish but I miss you terribly. For so many years, we have always shared a strong connection / bond no matter the geographical location; you have always been like a sister to me as well as my very, very, best friend, sometimes if it wasn't for our talks, as well as your honesty / advice, I am unsure where I would be today for these talks; we have gone through many life challenges together, big / small, I am so blessed / honored to have been able to share you for so many years with so many others, which is a gift within itself. We have always been friends for an eternity (since fifth grade) / current, there are very few people, if any, can say that they had a true, kind, loving, gifted, unique, smart, witty, intelligent, phenomenal, delightful, wonderful, amazing friend / sister such as yourself; I can truly say, I do / will love you always. My heartfelt condolences to your family. You will be forever missed, always; it is truly hard for me to accept the fact that you are gone, even though I am aware of this, but yet, I keep calling you landline and cell trying to reach you, waiting for you to pick up, I guess I have to try to do better regarding this; it is going to truly take a long time for this to happen because it is truly hard to let you go, perhaps because I do not want to let you go, but I am trying to adjust -- Although I know that you are gone, called home to where you are most needed / where you will be most happiest, I still miss you / will always miss you. Although you are not here physically gone, you will always be in my heart / spirit, always -- Friendships are permanent / always forever as we are; you are always my best, best friend and will be with me always / forever -- I *will always miss you -- Your best friend forever -- Mildred Russell “ Condolences to the entire family of our classmate, Glenda Faye Walls who has completed her task on this side of eternity. God in his infinite wisdom has received his child. We are saddened that she is no longer in our presence; but now before the King of Kings and Lord of Lords. Our prayer is that God will comfort and strengthen every friend and loved one. He promised to never leave nor forsake us. Prayerfully submitted on this day from the 1969 Class of Howard High School, Chattanooga TN-Elder Henrietta Erskine ❤️💛
