“ My husband and I always appreciated our gift we received at Christmas. We would purchase gifts every year for all the Deacons. It was never expensive, just a little something to say they were loved by us. He always told Ted he loved him like a brother.

New Tyner, small hood in East Brainerd; tight and always looking out for each other. Missing the growing up years of love and fun. Grew up and apart, staying in the heart. Could always locate each other through friends and family. Miss you dude, sorry I didn't get to know your children. Knowing you; they couldn't be different. Honest and hard working and pure gold. Spirit come holla at me sometime. Abraham Ellis Jr
