Sister Cameron was the sweetest and most gentle soul, and a constant encourager to our family. She epitomized what a faithful woman of God should be. She will be missed dearly! So thankful we got to visit with her recently and see her beautiful face and hear her encouraging voice. We loved her deeply and will miss her dearly; but will see her again. Our deepest condolences and prayers for comfort and peace for the family. 💜

Sweet cousin Hattie, whom I always called sister Cameron. Sister Cameron will be remembered by me for possessing that quiet humble spirit. When we saw each other especially at worship the way she called my name "Annie Dorris", will forever be etched in my ❤️ heart. I am delighted to have known such a beautiful woman of God. Love to you all.
