“Mrs. Moorman was my 10th grade English teacher in 1982 and she was caring, inspiring and unforgettable. A consummate educator and beautiful person, she helped us remember that each of us was Somebody. I am delayed in seeing her obituary and posting this, but I send my sincerest condolences.

“Helen was a talented educator, loving wife and parent, and a child of God with a magnetic personality. She leaves us with the words of Maya Angelou: And when great souls die, after a period peace blooms, slowly and always irregularly. Spaces fill with a kind of soothing electric vibration. Our senses, restored, never to be the same, whisper to us. They existed. They existed. We can be. Be and be better. For they existed.

- Maya Angelou

“Mrs. Moorman was lovely lady of honor and integrity. So very caring and thoughtful to all of our Office. A Lady who loved her Family and Friends. Our Office always enjoyed her kindness and good hearted conversations.

I am certain her family will miss her laughter, good nature and compassion.
