“ My world is different without you in it. I met you when I was 16, you were almost 18. We shared life together as 'soulmate' friends. I will miss the advice, the hellos and goodbyes. I have no one to call Atlanta to tell me about special events, Howard games, concerts, etc. that are scheduled in Chattanooga. I saw you become a father, husband, entrepreneur: bread route and property owner. I remember how excited you were when you accomplished 20 homes to rent out! When you finally finished detailing your purple and white pld school car-ensuring ever part was an original. We shared so many friendship moments. I'm going to miss my friend. I'm at peace knowing you are no longer in pain. REST MY FRIEND, REST MY FRIEND, IN THE BOSSOM OF THE LORD.

“Ike, I am deeply saddened by your passing but thankful I got to call you "friend." Throughout Junior-high school, high school and thereafter as you pursued your career and I went into the military, our friendship remained.

To Ike's family and friends, I pray you "enough." Enough being God's comfort and all which you may need in the days to come to process this loss, both individually and collectively. Well done and rest peacefully, my friend.

“ Condolences to the Washington family and friends. I didn't know Isaac very well but my deceased husband Ronnie Moore, Sr. thought highly of him. So, that tells me definitely that he was a man to be admired. I'm praying that the Lord Jesus gives his wife the spiritual strength she needs to carry on without his physical presence. May he rest in eternal peace. God is good always 🙏
