

Jamecia Jennings

January 15, 1969 - June 25, 2025

Jamecia Hullett Jennings, 56, of Chattanooga, peacefully transitioned to her eternal home with the Lord, on Wednesday, June 25, 2025, in a local healthcare facility. She was born on January 15, 1969, in Chattanooga, Tennessee to her beloved parents, John and Betty Hullett. From a young age, Jamecia dedicated her life to the Lord and was a devoted member of Second Missionary Baptist Church (SMBC). She participated in the youth choir during her formative years at SMBC. Jamecia was presently a member of the Nurses Guild. She also found immense joy in participating and being a part of the Women's Ministry at Second Missionary Baptist.

Jamecia received her education in Chattanooga Public Schools, graduating from Brainerd High School in 1987. She continued her studies at Middle Tennessee State University, where she proudly joined Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated. Later, she attended Covenant College, earning a Bachelor of Science degree. A lifelong learner, Jamecia furthered her knowledge in nursing through taking additional classes at Southern University. She dedicated her career to the Nursing profession because she found joy in taking care of others.

Jamecia worked at Hamilton County Schools and several medical facilities in the Chattanooga community. She found great joy in taking care of the students' medical needs at Rivermont Elementary and working with the elderly at Hamilton County Nursing Home. Jamecia was known for compassionate care, taking the time to connect with her patients, regardless of their age, and always making a meaningful impact on their lives through her care.

With a great flair for fashion, Jamecia excelled in design and decorating. She was always willing to help others decorate and create beautiful environments. Above all, she cherished her family and found immense joy in being a mother.

Jamecia was preceded in death by her father, Deacon John Franklin Hullett, Sr. She leaves behind her beloved son, Connor Jennings; devoted mother, Betty Hullett; devoted brother, John Franklin Hullett, Jr.; several cousins; and a host of friends.

Jamecia will lie-in-state on Friday, July 11, 2025, at 9 a.m. at Second Missionary Baptist Church. Funeral service will follow at 12 noon with Rev. Dr. Ernest L. Reid, Jr. as the Eulogist. Burial in Lakewood Memory Gardens, East. Arrangements are by Taylor Funeral Home of Chattanooga, Inc.

“ As we celebrate the life of Jamecia Jennings who will be greatly missed by her family and friends. Jamecia was warm hearted, caring, thoughtful and always had a smile. She had a strong faith, she loved her family especially her Daddy. Her heart ❤️ beat was for her son Connor. Making sure he was surrounded by the best of others in his life (Boys to Men Program). The best High school for his education. She often talked about her brother and care for him., after her father died she wanted her mother to get out of the house more. She was known as Nurse Jennings by everyone at Clifton Hill school. She was caring and kind especially to all the children a hug a smile an encouraging words whatever was needed to make them feel better and the teachers also. Love that conquers death as believers, we know that death is not the end. Though the love and sacrifice of Jesus Christ 🙏 we have been given the hope of eternal life. Jamecia is now in the presence of her earthly father and our heavenly Father. From the family of Joyce Douglas with much love and peace to the family.
