“ I worked for Jen and didn't even realize or know this happened. She was a awesome boss and hard worker and she loved her family. Jen was a good girl and I loved working with her she always wanted me to be there at work with her if the big bosses was coming In because I had such a bubbly personality and they liked the way I was with customers so I meant something to her my heart hurts and it's extremely heavy I didn't know about this I was looking you up I wanted to talk to you and I found you I love you Jen and I'm so sorry I didn't know. I hope all your pain and worries and troubles are at ease now!! R. I. P my fav boss lady. I miss our work days and now even worse me you n Jess. One day we will meet again.
