“ As the days pass of your absence the more reality sets in that you are resting. I went to Costco for the first time this past weekend and it was one of the most awkward feelings because you was not there. You was my brother's lil brother (Charles Jr) and I loved you as you was my brother as well and I know you looked me in return. You was an amazing people person and never met a stranger, just all that a person could want as a true friend. Justin you are truly missed

“ To: Orland and Judy and Orland Jr.

Thinking of you all with love and praying for the Lord Jesus Christ continued mercy and strengthen you all. Justin was a wonderful, friendly, kind, thoughtful young man. That smile he had as he jokes and playfulness with his brother I remember the times he came by P. J. Floral and how respectful he was, Love is forever and he will be missed but remember 2: Cor 5:8 We are confident, I say and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. With Love Pastor Evangelist Pinkie Boddy, Antioch, Tenn.

*Mrs Judy, Arland Sr & Jr you guys are in my prayers for days to come. To know Justin was to ABSOLUTELY LOVE him. 21st Century was where I met the entire family and just felled in love with the family. I ranned into Justin a few months back and he was so proud he was Working at Costco as a Supervisor. We laughed and laughed for good memories for a good hour. Who knew that would have been my last time to see him. Wow
Take your rest Justin
I was proud of you*
