“ I'm going to miss you so much! 😭 you were always there for anyone who needed you. You never treated anyone differently bc of where they came from, who they were friends with ect. You were genuinely the most loving person I've known. These past 19 years of having you in my life were unforgettable and I will always remember those amazing memories that we shared with each other. No-one could ever replace the person you were. Even though you are gone, I will still keep your memory alive and I will make sure your petty princess remembers the amazing things he daddy did and how much you loved her! Rest easy my beautiful friend, and until we again keep an eye over us. You're the most amazing brother from another! I love you!..... until next time, "damn you Roger, damn you!"
