“ Lil Bit was a great friend. We went to Brainerd High School together. After high school we would talk on the phone almost every day. Even though after years we didn't continue to talk everyday, we still considered ourselves friends. She will truly be missed. Sending comfort and prayers to her family and children.

“ Latricia Lovelace but will always be know as LITBIT.

To the first cousin that beat me up and made me help her practice her first Solo in church. (It's me, it's meeee on lord coming in the need of prayer.) And would get mad at me when I messed the words up, but I had to remind her (“this is your song not mine”). Lol

But the funniest story I have about you Cousin, is when I played basketball, one day out of the blue she said you think you doing something? I said I am, she said..... boy I remember when you use to Pee in the bed.. and we both fell out laughing.

Through the years we had our ups and downs like all families go through, but I knew just like she knew, if we called, we would be there.

I know the words above are not politically correct but just know when you talking to family you can just be you!!!!

A short poem for Litbit.

In childhood's arms, we laughed and played, Side by side, in sunlight we laid. (Well until the streets came on.) LOL

Now silence falls where we once dance, through our experience's life gave us a change.

We lived for our kids and they will never know, the sacrifices we faced so they could have more.

You have departed from us, but you will always be with me, like the days we sat under Nanny's tree.

In my heart your song remains (It's me, it's meeee on lord, coming in the need of prayer.)

*I'll remember you.

“ Latricia was an extraordinary friend, mentor, daughter, and mother, and she will be deeply missed. She was kind, dependable, and fully committed to everything she set out to do. I learned so much from her, and my life was truly blessed by having her as a friend. Like all who knew and loved her, my heart is heavy with the news of her passing, yet I find comfort in knowing she is now at peace and in the loving hands of the Lord. Rest in peace, my dear sister.
