“ To know you was to love you. You embraced your salvation and used your life to minister to others. You spoke your mind. God please bless his thoughts as he gave and shared his thoughts with us all. Please comfort all those who loved him. Comfort his children, grands and siblings. To God be the glory.

“ It was just after Thanksgiving, when we were at David Craw's house, loading up Christmas decorations. That was the best 3 hours I had in a long time. Just sitting and reminiscing over the last 40 years. Rest easy my old friend. The love between friends will always be there.
