“ I have known Marshall who I affectionately called “ML” all of my life. We grew up on the same street just one house separated our families. He was always like a big brother to me and I was the little sister he never had. His death is a loss to all who knew him. My deepest condolences to his son, Joshua, his brother, Norvell and to all of his family who mourns his loss. I pray the peace of God to comfort and keep them.
