“ I don't know much of Marshon, but he used to be with my mom and I think I'm his daughter. I've searched and searched for my father. I went through a DNA test with someone else who we may have thought was my dad, but wasn't. This is the only other person my mom was with and from what I hear he was a good man. He was funny and kind, everyone loved him. If the family would contact me I would be happy!

“ Marshon has been on my mind lately. He was a childhood friend from when he lived on Gay St. and kind of lost touch when we got older. Everytime I would visit Chattanooga I would stop by his grandma house RIP granny to see if he or his cousin Carl would be out. Caught up with him a couple of times. I really hate to hear that happened to him. RIP u will be missed.

“ I knew Marshon back in 2008-2009ish. I won't really say we were friends but from my interactions with him. he was a really nice guy from what i remember. He always made me laugh. I hate that this happened.
