

Mary Magdalene Clark

July 30, 1952 - August 31, 2024

Mary Magdalene Clark, 72, of Chattanooga, passed away on Saturday, August 31, 2024, at her residence. She was preceded in death by her parents, Felton Julius Clark, Sr. and Ocea Lee Clark; her daughter, Shaneka LaShun Storey; her brothers, David Stanley Clark, Roy Lee Clark, Napoleon Bonaparte Clark, Sr., and Felton Julius Clark, Jr.; and her sister, Rosa Mae Ryan. Mary was born on July 30, 1952, in Chattanooga, Tennessee. She grew up in Dewberry, Georgia, and eventually settled back in Chattanooga. Baptized at an early age, Mary graduated from Rossville High School in 1970 and pursued her dreams in cosmetology. She gained her license and traveled nationally, perfecting her craft. Mary worked at both Olan Mills and TVA for over two decades before retiring from Convergys in May 2014. A lifelong learner, she obtained her associate's degree at Chattanooga State and became certified in multiple areas. Mary was a devoted Samaritan, volunteering at multiple senior living facilities and regularly at Chattanooga School for the Arts & Sciences. Her church home and membership were with Orchard Knob Missionary Baptist Church. She enjoyed traveling with her daughter, walking outdoors, and creating lots of laughter. Mary had a unique way of telling stories, often laughing so hard that others couldn't help but join in. She is loved and will be greatly missed by her family and friends. To cherish her memory, Mary leaves behind one daughter, DeAndrea L. Storey of Chattanooga; a grandson, Jalen D. Crockett of Chattanooga; a great-granddaughter, Ashanti S. Crockett of Chattanooga; a brother, Alonzo L. Clark of Flintstone, GA; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and many cherished friends. Mary will lie-in-state on Tuesday, September 10, 2024, at 9 a.m. at Taylor Funeral Home. Mary Clark will be missed. She and I would talk often on the phone, she would call to check on Don and then we would take a trip down memory lane talking about our childhood days in school. To her daughter who she loved more than life, I'm so sorry for your loss and I know you're hurting now but as time goes on your memories will remind you of the happy times you and your mother shared. Praying for you peace and comfort 🙏❤️🙏
