“ What a honor it has been to call you a friend and brother in Christ. One of my favorite songs to hear you sing was Touch your people once again. I know for a fact that you felt the touch of God on Thursday April 30th when he called you home. You crossed the divide and entered into eternal rest. So rest my friend in the arms of Jesus till we meet again. One day we will reunite to sing together again it's a song the Holy Angels can not sing. I once was lost but now I'm found. My family will love harder and Forgive more willingly because of witness you left behind.

I am thinking that you delivered my newspaper daily and every Christmas you would place a card in the newspaper. I never met you, but I pray for your loved ones that they might find peace and understanding during this time of bereavement.
