“ This just breaks my heart! He had such a kind soul. Met him in junior high and he was such a respectable person even then. I hate this. Heaven will be a better place with this man up there.

“ We loved Miguel and Trey from the first time we met them. My husband eventually called him our son. He kept an eye on my elderly mom who lived beside him. He was a gentle giant who loved God, his son, and all things “sports”. We will miss him and cherish the memories. RIP.

“ We remember very clearly the kindness and light that Miguel brought to our lives. We were there to care for him and somehow, he managed to care for us by showing the importance of love (for his son Trey and family), gratitude (for those offering even the smallest gesture), and hope (for every day to be a better day). You will always be remembered, Miguel and will hold a very special place in our hearts.

*With love and thanks for your friendship,

“ I remember Miguel as if he was one of my own. He played baseball in middle and high school with my sons and played football with the other 2 sons. I was with him when he broke his leg playing middle school basketball with Ryne. I took him to Erlanger North in my explorer. He was so brave that day. I had the pleasure of meeting his grandparents who were delightful. Mike worked different shifts so a lot of times I was responsible for getting him home. One memory is stopping by the Central Park in Red Bank to get him 2 big bubbba burgers with fries. That usually happened when we won the game. Miguel was our power hitter and first baseman. When he was on he was on! He was a true friend to my family and I always knew my boys were safe when Miguel was with them. He had a contagious laugh and beautiful smile. Always upbeat. My sympathy to the family and friends.

“Tons of great memories with Miguel... We met playing little league football on the same team, played baseball against each other in HS and ultimately had the opportunity to coach OUR kids together for travel baseball. The thing I will always remember the most was the love he had for his son, Trey! He was proud to be Trey's Dad, and he should have been.

One memory from coaching together was when Miguel wanted our D1 team to have white Nike cleats... I wasn't a fan, but Miguel said he wanted the kids to have them! Miguel bought EVERY kid on our team a pair of white cleats out of the kindness of his heart. We didn't tell anyone he paid for them because he didn't want the glory, he just wanted to give back to the kids. That was Miguel!

Miguel had a huge heart and was a great friend to so many! You will be missed! RIP

“I don't have a specific memory, but I will say that I never recall seeing that big guy when he wasn't smiling and loving everyone around him. The guy truly was the epitome of a big teddy bear. He was loved by many because he loved many. My condolences and prayers to his family.
