“ Extending heartfelt condolences to the Family.
🙏 Mildred and I shared a neighborly relationship for over twenty years built by shared connections. One such connection was the Hickey Family, whom I knew through church during my youth. Mildred would often share her life stories which included her love for attending Church, singing, and bowling. She shared her love for her family, and would often reflect on the loss of her son, whom she deeply missed. I will miss Mildred dearly.
💔 I thank God for my time shared with Mildred and knowing she has been granted eternal peace and glory with her Lord and Savior.

“ Harvey family, we all had so much fun sitting around her kitchen table, laughing and talking about things that once was and could be. I always stopped by and see her in the yard, and we talked and laughed for a while with that little funny hat on her head, and she said only you catch me at my worst.

I give all of you my sincere and deepest condolences
