Mrs. Mollie Mae Stone Dean, 94, of Chattanooga, departed this life on Sunday, June 30, 2024. She passed peacefully at NHC Healthcare of Chattanooga. Mollie was born in Madison County, Alabama on September 23, 1929. She was the second child of the late Water Lee Stone and Georgia Ann Kelly Stone. She was united in marriage to Elige M. Most of her life's work was as a homemaker who faithfully, tirelessly, responsibly, protectively and lovingly nurtured her children and managed her home life. She was a committed and loving wife and mother. Mollie joined the Greater Friendship Primitive Baptist Church under the pastorate of A.M. Sylar. She continued her devotion to her church family and service to God under the pastorate of James Penney and subsequent pastors. She served on the Senior Usher Board and the A. M. Sylar Choir until her health declined. Mollie and her family lived in the Avondale community of East Chattanooga for over sixty years. Throughout these years she was known to be a substantial part of the neighborhood and a reliable neighbor. She was affectionately greeted by many as Mama.
