

Quaryell Kenyon Campbell

April 27, 1978 - December 1, 2023

Quaryell “Kenyon” Campbell, 45, of Chattanooga, passed away Friday, December 1, 2023. He was born on April 27, 1978, to the proud parents Richard J. Campbell, Jr., and Andrea Arnold. He attended Howard High School. He was baptized at an early age and became a member of St. Elmo Baptist Church. Kenyon was his father’s best friend. He could always talk to his father, and he listened. He was a partner, a respectful child and he never got smart with his father or mother. Family was important to Kenyon. He was a good father, family man and good guy. Kenyon loved all his children, and parents. He also was respectful toward elderly people. He was an extraordinary person with many gifts like singing, rapping, dancing, and telling jokes. Kenyon was a likeable guy. Everyone liked him and if he was in your presence he would glow like a light. He was known to dress nicely. He had a great personality and was loved by many and extremely special to all. We hope God will be pleased with Kenyon and thank God for allowing Kenyon to be with us for 45 years. Kenyon was preceded in death by his maternal grandmother, Marie Brewer; paternal grandfather, Richard Campbell, Sr.; and aunt, Joyce Lomnick.
