I'm so sorry for your loss. I'm so gonna miss Rafael smiling face at work. I would call his name out and then say the hardest working man in ESD and we would laugh. RIP and keeping working hard in your kingdom. Sending prayers up for the family.

“ To the family of my grandson-in-law Terrance Sims, I was so sadden to learn of the untimely passing of Rafael. I know it weighs heavy on your hearts because you all are such a close family. I also know that as a Christian family God will wrap his loving, compassionate arms around you all to give you great tranquility at this time of sorrow. I'm sending my love to you all.

Only God knows how to move forward then a heart is weak and are broken. There for the trust must be in God on which way the heart may go. Stay close together in Christ family, God will direct the path!!
