“ I knew who Mr.Hardin because of his wonderful Daughters. I had never met him.My husband and I was sitting at Booker T Washington lake fishing.Mr Hardin got out his truck and came down the fishing bank to give me pointers on how to fish.I thought I was the pro because I grew up under a professional fisherman (Ira Hinton).Mr Hardin was a Expert fishing man!My Husband I talk to him a long time we realized we knew each other.Rest of the summer we meet at same spot everyday like (Daughter, son-in-law)family!He would always, always give my husband and I good advice!! He had a calm humble spirit about him. His Daughters have that same spirit about them.He will always be remembered!Rest in piece Mr Hardin.Rest in Piece!!!

“ Dear Hardin Family: May you feel His arms wrapped around you as you walk this difficult path. May you sense His spirit and may the peace that passes all understanding rest upon each of you. I am so happy that I was able to meet him through all of you and to pray for him and his journey. Thank you for allowing me this honor. God richly bless you. Love you all very much, Ardyth Fritts

“ So sorry to hear of the passing of Mr. Hardin "Jack". He may be the last of the Pioneer Insurance salesmen for a Black Insurance company in Chattanooga. He worked with my husband many years ago who was also a salesman and manager of one of these companies. At that time, the insurance business was a booming business for the Black community. May God Bless and keep your family at this time. Ethel Jones
