“ First, I thank God for my cousin, BaBa. Second, family, I pause to transfer a smile and embrace to each of you. My prayer is for you all to support each other.

I never experienced an uncomfortable moment with my cousin. When I encountered her, she was always smiling. She was pleasant and amusing. I sometimes called her Juanita's daughter since she reminded me of my great-aunt. The last time we spoke, she asked me to locate a banquet hall for her retirement dinner. Her health failed her, and we never got a chance to move forward to fulfill her request. It is okay, especially since God's banquet hall is more beneficial. What I will miss most is her love for our family. I am at peace with her resting! Vincent E. Spann
