“ I don't think I've seen Tor since my freshman year of high school in Whitefish Bay, WI. We were in gym class together and we always had a good time together. For some reason I started thinking about Tor recently. I'm sure he's in Heaven now and reaching out from the other side. God bless you Tor.

Words cannot express what my heart is feeling. They won't even exchange the longing I feel 2 see his face, and hear his caring laugh. ~Tor~ was and will always be loved, Appreciated and remembered by me and everyone he has touch with his presence on this earth. As I write this, my mind travels with giggles and clowning. enjoying the moments of life we shared as frineds, giving From Elohim the Most High God, which ~Tor~he loved very much. On this day we will not celebrate the passing of a beautiful unique man. But we will be strong and happy as we celebrate the arrival of a KING, seeing him off, 2 our Heavenly Father, the creator of life. My heart and deepest condolences goes out to his loving family which he spoke so much about. We shared some good God like moments. I will see u soon my brotha. As I say I love U, tears drop from my EYES, embracing the sound of your voice, saying everything will be is OK. 2 THE MOON AND BACK MY LOVE TRAVELS WITH U Tor V. Branch..... Your FRINED Robert L.
