Yvonne as I heard of your homegoing. It made me reflect on our past association, our talks and your unique laugh. We went different ways in life. In your sickness you took wings to the light in your flight of peace. No more pain, no more sorrow and no more tears. Rest in Peace. City High Classmate of 1976, Velda Hilt

The McCray Family sends our deepest condolences to the Hyter Family in the loss of our friend, Yvonne. Yvonne and I had been friends since Howard Elementary; we worked at Olan Mills together for more than 20 years, and Yvonne served as a bridesmaid at my wedding. Memories of Mrs. Creola Hyter, Yvonne, and the rest of the Hyter family will live on forever. Our prayers are with you; Love from Fred & Cheryl McCray

Ms. Yvonne Hyter, I am deeply sadden by this horrific news. You was one of my Favorite Hyter Girls with a pure heart. You showed Love and supported Everyone you encountered with a smile. You always helped others who was in need without hesitation. You always supported the girls at games. Robert and myself is going to miss our long funny conversations, and jokes on the phone, and after ending each phone call you have always told that you loved us. You was truly a Amazing person with a Beautiful spirit and a Heart of Gold. We will ALWAYS love you and miss your smile, RIP Yvonne.
